MyInvites.com.au parties with Samboy

As Australia's easiest and most useful event planning website, myinvites.com.au makes getting together easy. The site offers great event and party planning tools including free invitation design, a gift registry, a party supplies and venue directory, theme and decoration ideas and more. In fact, myinvites.com.au offers just about every party-planning tool you'll need, except the snacks for when your guests arrive...

So that's where Samboy comes in! Myinvites.com.au is partying with Snackbrands Australia this month to offer 4000 party people across Australia free Samboy chips! What's more, if you're lucky enough to get them, they'll be delivered direct to your door before your event to ensure your friends get to try Australia's favourite chip with the flavour hit. So if you have a birthday, bucks, hens or office party coming up (any excuse for a party will do!), visit myinvites.com.au today and register your event to get your free Samboy chips.
